Dear Vigory Gloriman Manalu,

the manuscript HOW FORESIGHT CAPABILITIES INFLUENCE PRODUCT INNOVATION PERFORMANCE OF SME IN INDONESIA: COMPETITIVE INTENSITY AS MODERATION, submitted to Problems and Perspectives in Management Journal, needs to be revised.

Comments:

We ask you to align the manuscript following the Guidelines <https://businessperspectives.org/journals/problems-and-perspectives-in-management#submission-guidelines-for-authors>

Please, pay attention that the research paper, which is a final report on the finished original experimental study, the structure is Abstract, Introduction, Literature review, Method, Results, Discussion, Conclusion.

Carefully divide text between sections. Do not divide sections into small subsections and do not involve additional sections.

The number of words in the paper may vary from 4000 to 6000. Considering the issue concerning the calculation of the number of words in the paper, the information about the authors, title, abstract and keywords, list of references and appendix (up to 5 pages) should not be included.

Clearly and concretely state the aim of the study and the title.

Write the Abstract according to the following algorithm: first two or three sentences indicate the relevance of the topic; the aim and object of the study; the methodology (methods) of the study (for theoretical studies – its theoretical basis) are described; the obtained results and their practical value are characterized. Dedicate most of the Abstract to the result. While demonstrating it, provide quantitative characteristics. The volume of the Abstract should be 150-250 words.

The keywords should reflect the area of the research. The number of keywords should be 5-10 in average. There should not be the sentences, but the words or word groups. There is no need to replicate words from the title of the manuscript.

Clarify JEL classification codes.

The Introduction (0,5-1 page) should be devoted exclusively to the relevance of the research topic and the formulation of the problem in general. Do not review the literature here.

The Literature review (40-50 analyzed sources) should begin with a few introductory sentences. It should also be completed with 2-3 general sentences. Then authors should complete it by formulating the Aim. Then provide hypotheses (right here and altogether, do not place the text between them). Then should be Methods.

The Result section is the main section of the article.

The Discussion section should discuss the study results, compare them with previous ones, discuss why the authors have such results, determine future prospects.

The Conclusions were built incorrectly. There should be such logic in the Conclusions - indicate the aim of the research, briefly demonstrate the result, indicate what conclusions should be drawn from it.

Please, carefully revise the manuscript's text to ensure it's academic and logical.

The deadline for revisions is 2022-09-06

Dear Vigory Gloriman Manalu,

the manuscript HOW FORESIGHT CAPABILITIES INFLUENCE PRODUCT INNOVATION PERFORMANCE OF SME IN INDONESIA: COMPETITIVE INTENSITY AS MODERATION, submitted to Problems and Perspectives in Management Journal, needs to be revised.

Comments:

The text of the manuscript should not be submitted in the first person, not like “we”, “authors” or “researchers”.

Specify the title. In fact, we currently have two questions in the title that the authors want to demonstrate.

This also applies to the purpose of the study. It should be one.

The keywords should reflect the area of the research. The number of keywords should be 5-10 in average. There should not be the sentences, but the words or word groups. There is no need to replicate words from the title of the manuscript.

Do not enter or use your own (unestablished) abbreviations in the title of the article, in the Abstract, in the Conclusions.

Write the abstract carefully and more responsibly. Provide quantitative indicators while demonstrating the result of the study.

Do not start chapters with subsections. Introductory sentences are required.

There should be 40-50 analyzed sources in the literature review. It should start with a few introductory sentences. The review should also be concluded with 2-3 summarizing sentences. Then the purpose of the research should be formulated.

Our journal strictly observes the principles of publication ethics, including when talking about citing the works of other scientists and the works they published earlier. Any loanwords, including text loans (even insignificant), are unacceptable without mentioning their author.

We kindly ask you to pay attention to the widespread problem of wrong citation when Author A somehow gives (mentions, retells) the text fragment from the work (published by Author B), which contains the reference to other work (published by Author C).

In this case there are two options of correct citation:

1 – cite the work of Author B and note that he/she, in turn, cited the work of Author C;

2 – directly mention the work of Author C as well and cite it.

Do not forget that you can also use direct citations, that is why please use the quotation marks and when citing the source please note the page from which this quotation was taken.

You should be absolutely sure that you did not violate the principles of publication ethics. If there are at least small doubts that there can be loanwords in your text, we kindly ask you to check the manuscript for plagiarism by yourself using the special instruments (plagiarism detection software).

Please, check the plagiarism report and revise the manuscript

Dear Vigory Gloriman Manalu,

the manuscript HOW FORESIGHT CAPABILITIES INFLUENCE PRODUCT INNOVATION PERFORMANCE OF SME IN INDONESIA: COMPETITIVE INTENSITY AS MODERATION, submitted to Problems and Perspectives in Management Journal, needs to be revised.

Comments:

The title of the article and its aim do not match.

In the abstract, indicate who exactly was interviewed, from which industries, how they were interviewed, why such a sample (all this should also be explained in the abstract while demonstrating the result), and how relevant it is.

Most of the text of the manuscript looks very chaotic. Why, for example, such a paragraph in the Introduction "In order to compete, companies are required to have good foresight to be able to predict future events (Nyuur, Brečić, & Sobiesuo, 2015; Vecchiato, Favato, Di Maddaloni, & Do, 2020). Foresight is a more inclusive capacity to creatively absorb and synthesize important information into meaningful future-oriented knowledge to thrive, develop, and perhaps create and capture sustainable value (Paliokaitė, Pačėsa, & Sarpong, 2014)." Where is the logic here? What does it demonstrate? Why is foresight in general devoted so much attention here in the Introduction? For what?

Better to remove this altogether "This study will investigate how foresight can affect product innovation performance and the moderating effect of competitive intensity.

This study aims to provide insight to owners or managers and policy stakeholders on the survival and resilience of SMEs in facing the intensity of business competition by focusing on the role of product innovation which is thought to be influenced by foresight capabilities. This paper will use various predetermined characteristics of SMEs from West Java, Indonesia. Next, this paper will provide the literature review, explain the research methodology and present the empirical results. It will then conclude with a discussion of the findings and limitations and offer some suggestions for future research. "

The introduction should be devoted only to explaining the relevance of the research topic and at its conclusion to formulate a SCIENTIFIC problem (not an aim, but a problem). The purpose of the research should be indicated after completing the Literature Review. The review should be devoted to previous studies on the specific issue that the authors are investigating.

Follow all other recommendations.

Comments:

Once again, please carefully read and process the text.

For example, the title of the article should be agreed upon. The aim should be the same or very similar throughout the text of the manuscript. All sections should be subordinated to the realization of the aim.
