MOTTO

"There are two lessons here. The first is that small progress is still progress. You're learning and growing. That's great. Keep working on it. The second lesson is that people need to be encouraged.

Encourage your people as you see them trying new things."

(A Man Called Otto)

"Be careful on what you do, because it may be good for you but not for the other, and keep what you already have, because you may regret when you lost it in the future"

This research investigates the types and meanings of slang words used in the post and comment section of the "Jual Beli eFootball PES 2023" Facebook community. The primary objectives are to categorize the different types of slang and meaning of the slang word to understand how these terms contribute to the representation of community identity. Data were collected from various posts and comments, resulting in a comprehensive dataset of 268 slang occurrences. The analysis identified five main types of slang: Fresh and Creative, Imitative, Flippant, Acronym, and Clipping. The most frequent types were Clipping (104 occurrences) and Acronym (88 occurrences), indicating a community preference for efficient and specialized communication. Fresh and Creative slang (34 occurrences) and Imitative slang (42 occurrences) reflect a vibrant subculture within the group, while the absence of Flippant slang suggests a serious and goal-oriented interaction style. The findings reveal that the community's slang usage not only facilitates quick and effective communication but also reinforces a sense of belonging and shared identity.
